2. INTRODUCTION TO PAIA

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (“PAIA”) came into operation on 9 March 2001.

The ACT grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of the ACT shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided. The forms and tariffs are dealt with in paragraphs 6 and 7 of the Act.

Requesters are referred to the Guide in terms of Section 10 which has been compiled by the South African Human Rights Commission, which will contain information for the purposes of exercising Constitutional Rights. The Guide is available from the SAHRC.

The contact details of the Commission are:

3. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to-

- i check the categories of records held by a body which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- ii have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- iii know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- iv access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- v know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- vi know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- vii know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;

- viii know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- ix know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- x know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

4. OUR PAIA MANUAL

This manual serves as the PAIA/POPIA Manual for The Bailey on Bree (Pty) Ltd

This manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (“POPIA”), which gives effect to the Constitutional right to privacy and which became fully effective on 1 July 2021. POPIA promotes the protection of personal information processes by public and private bodies, including certain conditions to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for (i) the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA, (ii) providing for the issuing of codes of conduct, (iii) providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and (iv) to provide for matters concerned therewith.

This PAIA manual also includes information on the submission of objections to the processing of personal information and requests to delete, destroy or correct personal information records thereof in terms of POPIA.

For purposes of this Manual, we refer to ourselves as “The Bailey”, “we”, “us”, or “our”.

We have compiled this Manual to inform you of, and guide you through, the procedural and other requirements with which a PAIA request must comply.

5. ABOUT US AND OUR BUSINESS

The Bailey is located on Bree Street in the heart of the Mother City, Cape Town. Set in a historic building, the Bailey is designed in the classic tradition and inspired by some of the grand all-day cafés and restaurants of Europe. 13. REQUEST PROCEDURE

Completion of the prescribed form

Any request for access to a record from a private body in terms of PAIA must substantially correspond with the form attached hereto marked Appendix A- FORM C – Request for access to record of private body (Section 53(1) of PAIA) [Regulation 10].

A request for access to inform which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to you.

Payment of the prescribed fees

A Fee may be payable, depending on the type of information requested, as described under Appendix B – Fees in respect of private bodies.

There are two categories of fees which are payable:

- The request fee: R50

- The access fee: This is calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs.

Section 54 of PAIA entitles us to levy a charge or to request a fee to enable it to recover the cost of processing a request and providing access to records. The fees that may be charged are set out in Regulation 9(2)(c) promulgated under PAIA.

Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request us to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.

POPIA also provides that where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, we must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the data subject pays a deposit for all, or part of the fee.

14. OBJECTION

POPIA provides that a data subject may, at any time, object to us processing personal information, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Appendix C – FORM 1 – Objection to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3) of POPIA Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 2] and submit it to the information officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic email address set out above.

15. CORRECTION

A data subject may also request that we correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that we are no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.

A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic email address set out above on the form attached hereto as Appendix D – FORM 2 – Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA's Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 3].

16. PROOF OF IDENTITY

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of such identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

17. TIMELINES FOR CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST FOR ACCESS

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is necessary.

Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

18. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused.

These grounds include:

- The protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- The protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets, financial or commercial information that may harm the commercial or financial interest of a third party);
- If disclosure would result in a breach of duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- If disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- If the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- If the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put us at a disadvantage in negotiations, prejudice in its commercial competition or prejudice its security measures;
- If the record is required for legal proceedings and/or
- If the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by us.

Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent or serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) if the public interest in the disclosure of the record is in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty-one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty-one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

19. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

If the Information Officer decided to grant a requester access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

An appeal procedure may be followed after a request access information has been refused, which will be described in the correspondence addresses to you by the Information Officer.

In the event you are not satisfied with the outcome of the appeal, you are entitled to apply to the Information Regulator or a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within the 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.

20. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF INFORMATION SECURITY MEASURES TO BE IMPLEMENTED BY THE RESPONSIBLE PARTY TO ENSURE THE CONFIDENTIALITY, INTEGRITY AND AVAILABILITY OF THE INFORMATION

At The Bailey, personal information is kept under security safeguards to ensure the confidentiality and integrity of the information.

Personal information is stored on secure servers installed with Data Encryption, Anti-Virus and Anti-malware Solutions. There is also a back-up server that is kept off site in the event the main server is damaged.

If hard copies of personal information are kept then all information is secured and monitored in specific locations relevant to who has access to it. Personal Information can only be accessed by persons with warranted authority to do so. When hard copies of personal information do not need to be kept anymore, they are then destroyed.

21. AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

Copies of this manual are available for inspection, free of charge, at The Bailey on Bree and via our website the-bailey.co.za. Hard copies of this manual can also be requested. If you would like to request one, please contact the information officer at info.officer@tintswalo.com.
